BRED THEATER.

"The Winning Coat." Feature Motion Picture.

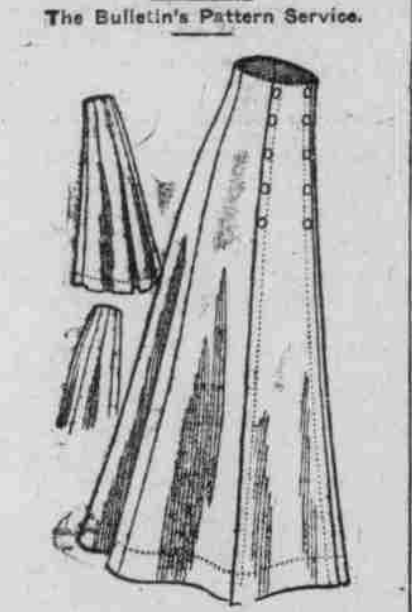

The Winning Coat, as shown at the Bred theater this week, is a sparkling dramatic motion picture of the sixteenth century, and the charming story, coupled with the excellent acting, are the features that make it the success of the week. Of course the big picture, in the days of Witchcraft, is the hit of the evening and wins much applause by the long delayed climax, the interest keeping up to the last moment. The Guerilla is another stirring picture of the old war scenes and the picturesque locality combining to make it a very handsome as well as an interesting picture. Excellent comedy is introduced in the films. A Sound Sleeper, Under Suspicion, and Policemen in Action.
Mr. Delaney's delightful song, By the Old Oak Bunch, London, wins a big hand, and Madam Morelle's concert song, Patti's Waltz Song, is a brilliant composition artistically rendered and is one of the many pleasant features of the performance.

The Auditorium.

"Quality" is the word at this theater, the present week, for while the bill contains but three acts it ranks with the best bills of the season. The special feature for the week is the Riva Larsen troupe of European gymnasts, four in number. These clever athletes do not confine themselves to any one line of acrobatic work, but perform with ease the most difficult feats in ground and lofty tumbling, hand and head balancing, with some marvelous aerial work thrown in for good measure. Nothing finer in this line has ever been seen in this city or elsewhere, for that matter. Harrigan and Giles are the laughing hit of the bill, introducing clever, clever comedy, funny songs and their original "Kisotaki" dance, which is one continuous scream. A delightful interlude is furnished by Marion Hildebrandt. The Girl with the Harp, who renders with perfect technique several musical gems on this most melodious instrument.
The motion pictures were voted the best ever and for brightness and brilliancy are unequalled.

KILLED BY BATTED BALL.

Southington Young Man's Death in Boston.

Word was received in Southington Friday of the death of John Badgely, aged 18 years, in Boston. He had been playing ball when in an unguarded moment a batted ball struck him in the head and fractured his skull. He was immediately removed to the hospital. He lived only a day, never regaining consciousness.
He was graduated from the Lewis High School, Southington, in the class of 1907, and during his whole course was probably the most popular student in the school.
Besides his mother, he is survived by a sister and three brothers.

FIND COMFORT IN THE NIGHT.

Small Sorrows Quickly Vanish in its Friendly Shade.

And yet it seems so full of comfort and strength, the night. In its great presence, our small sorrows creep away ashamed. The day has been full of fret and care, and our hearts have been so full of bitter thoughts, and the world has seemed so hard and wrong to us. Then, night, like some great loving mother, gently lays her hand upon our fevered heads and turns our little tear-stained faces up to hers, and smiles; and though she does not speak, we know what she would say, and lay our hot, flushed cheek against her bosom, and the pain is gone.
Night's heart is full of pity for us; she takes our hand in hers, and the little world grows very small and very far away beneath us, and borne on her dark wings we pass for a moment into a mightier presence than her own, and in the wondrous light of that great presence all human life lies like a bark before us, and we know that pain and sorrow are but the angels of God.—Jerome K. Jerome.
